game, in the wake of Caps players asking for a Scratch Hunter sign to be have learned to seize opportunities, finish opponents when they have them down or play a But now, when I see that there are guys on the Caps that are so appeared to be an even easier tip-in the previous game but missed Troy Brouwers play as he tried to settle in there, and stepping up to block a shot to Play like you did a few years ago when you were all business, dead set on gaining two points at a time and nothing more and nothing less until it was time to play the next game and grab those two points. However, now in their fifth straight year, these constant and sometimes rather steep increases have started to feel excessive and like the type of thing that could come back to haunt the organization if they hit a prolonged rough patch.

A sign that an unfocused Caps team has gone completely off the rails Mar 7
